THE BRIDE'S COUSIN PERFORMS CEREMONY

Society Learns Mrs. Bostwick Became Wife of Fitch C bert on June 15.

Miss Kathryn Eugenia Cumissy's sarriage to William Stanley Mullen as the first wedding to be celebrated town this month. The ceremony yas ferformed yesterday morning in the Church of the Holy Trinity, west seld st. by Monsignor Charles A. Cassidy, the bride's count, who also married her parents. A quartet sang "The Voice that Breathed O'er Eden." The Rev. John G. McCormick, of the Holy Trinity Church, read the nuptial mass, during which the choir and Ernest Hussar's orchestra rendered Gouned's "Ave Maria," Gounod's "Sanctus," the "Benedictus" and Barnaby's "O Perfect Love." Previous to the deremony several selections were played by the orchestra. The processional was the wedding march from "Lohengrin" and the recessional Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride, who was escorted to the after by her father, was in a gown of ivory white taffets, combined with lace and tulie. She wore a small hat of white silk beaver, trimined with white flowers, and carried lilies-of-the-valley and white orchids. Her ornaments consisted of a diamond bar pin, the gift of the bridegroom, and a string of pearls from her father.
